

Name: _____

Quotation Marks

~ Part I ~

Quotation marks belong at the beginning and end of the words a person speaks.

Examples: The teacher asked, "Are you a buyer or a packer?"
The student answered, "I am a buyer."

Directions: Each sentence is missing quotation marks and a comma. Add where needed.

- 1) My brother asked Will you help me with this?
- 2) The umpire yelled Safe!
- 3) The student asked May I sharpen my pencil?
- 4) My sister said You can play with me.
- 5) The crowd yelled Surprise!

Directions: The following sentences are missing quotation marks as well as commas and capitalization. Add where needed.

- 1) The boy said my name is Chad.
- 2) The doctor asked what does not feel well?
- 3) My dad asked what time is it?
- 4) My mom said it's time for bed.
- 5) The children screamed the ice cream truck is coming!

Name: _____

Quotation Marks

~ Part 2 ~

Quotation marks belong at the beginning and end of the words a person speaks.

Examples: "What time is it?" asked my friend.
"It is 9:15," I replied.

Directions: The following sentences are missing quotation marks. Add quotation marks where needed.

- 1) I will help you, answered the child.
- 2) We won the game! screamed the winning team.
- 3) You may sharpen your pencil, said the teacher.
- 4) Are you okay? asked the girl.
- 5) Happy birthday! yelled the class.

Directions: The following sentences are missing quotation marks as well as other punctuation marks. Add where needed.

- 1) Punctuation is taking a vacation said the teacher.
- 2) My stomach hurts mumbled the boy.
- 3) How many cookies can I have asked the boy.
- 4) Watch out yelled my friend.
- 5) Make sure your name is on the paper said the teacher.